A MOTHER'S WISH.

"If I were a fairy—
Now listen unto me—
And had the power to grant a wish,
What should the baby be?
Would you wish these little hands
Might gather wealth untold?
Would you wish this little head
Might with a name of gold?
Would you wish this prattling tongue
Might sway the hearts of all?
Would you wish a golden crown
Upon these curls to fall?
Tell me, mother of the boy,
Now what should I bestow?
Everything is possible
To fairies, you must know."
"If you were a fairy,"
The gentle mother said,
"And could you grant my simple wish
As soon as it is said,
I'd have you stay the flight of years
For him upon my knee,
That he might never, never change,
But still my baby be!"

A SINGULAR EXPLOSION.—Yesterday afternoon a very singular explosion occurred in the Postoffice in this city. Charley Brooks one of the clerks, was engaged in canceling the stamps on the various letters about to be sent away, and while striking upon one of them an explosion took place that very much astonished him. The report was as loud as that of a pistol. The end of the letter was blown open, and he had his whiskers and face singed. Fire was thrown in every direction over the room, and two letters that were lying near the one that blew up were set on fire. It is supposed that the letter contained a long string of percussion caps upon tape, such as are used upon some of the self-capping rifles and carbines, as a string resembling such tape was blown out upon the table and burned there. The explosion filled the office with smoke, and for a time there was considerable consternation among the inmates. Truly, some curious mail matter is carried by Uncle Samuel.—[Virginia City Enterprise, 20th inst.]

THE WORK OF SIX YEARS.—Six years have witnessed the emancipation of 25,000,000 serfs in Russia; the liberation of 4,000,000 slaves in the United States, and the virtual manumission of 3,000,000 negroes in Brazil. As a contemporary says: "It is a glorious six years' work—22,000,000 of men restored to freedom, and a curse taken off three of the largest empires in the world! The little that remains to be done cannot rest long undone. The miserable relic of barbarism lingers only on a few islands belonging to the Spanish crown; and the slaveholder who, in the face of the events of the last few years, hopes to retain the right to buy and sell his fellow-men, even in those islands, must be sanguine indeed."

THE DILIGENT WOMAN.—She riseth in the morning betimes, and as the lark singeth to his mate, so she maketh a joyful noise in all her house.

She maketh up her bed, and beareth she pillows thereof; and like as an eagle stretcheth up the feather and spreadeth out the sheets, and layeth the blankets apart.

She layeth her hand to the washtub, rubbeth upon the board, making clean the fine linen; her hands take fast hold of the wringer, and by turning the crank the water thereof is pressed out.

She clotheth her family with pure garments, when she has made them smooth with a hot iron; and by reason thereof her husband is made comely when he sitteth among the chief men, or walketh in the market places.

She kneadeth up her dough and baketh a goodly cake for her household, and to every one she giveth a piece of bread and butter of kind.

She provideth her dinner in due season, and supper falleth not when the good man returneth at the end of the day, with his labors and the strife of men.

She looketh well to the ways of her household, and scorneth the idle woman, with her delicate hands, who lieth in bed and calleth a servant.

DANIEL WEBSTER was right when he remarked of the press: "Small is the sum required to patronize a newspaper; amply rewarded its patron, I care not how humble and unpresentable the gazette he takes. It is next to impossible to fill a printed sheet without putting into it something that is worth the subscription price."

"Sure," said Patrick, rubbing his head with delight at the prospect of a present from his employer, "I always mane to do my duty."

"I believe you," replied his employer, and I therefore shall make you present of all you have stolen during the past year."

"I thank you, your honor," replied Pat, "and may all your friends and acquaintances treat you as liberally."

WORK OF THE "DEVIL."—We have seen some awful typographical errors in our day, but seldom any more ludicrous than the following. The editor, wanting a line to fill the column, gave—
"Shoot Polly as she files."—Pope.
In the hurry of setting it up, the "Devil" rendered it thus:
"Shoot Polly as she files—Pop!"

In the new office of the Philadelphia Ledger, a lady will have charge of receiving all advertisements brought by women.

THE emigration from Ireland to this country is immense. Nine steamships were filled in a week at Cork.

THE UNION PLATFORM.

The Union Party of the State of California, in Convention assembled, hereby present to the people of this State their platform and declaration of party principles:

Resolved, That in the present, as in the past, we are irreconcilably opposed to treason and traitors, whether the same shall attempt to subvert our Union and control our Government by fraudulent treachery from within, or force from without; and that upon the loyalty of the Nation, tried and proven, we rely to re-establish finally and forever the bonds of our National Union.

Resolved, That in reconstructing the nation its foundations should be justice and its architects loyalty, and we are willing that those so active in destroying should be the chosen and preferred builders to erect it, and until it shall appear that in the States lately in rebellion no such men exist capable and ready to administer justice and enforce law in accordance with the principles of a government of freedom and equality, it is our wish that the government be administered and the law enforced by the loyal agents of the Federal Government.

Resolved, That in the reconstruction plan of the late Congress we recognize a policy as wise as it is magnanimous, and which the respective States in rebellion shall bring themselves as sisters and receive them as equals in the Federal Government.

Resolved, That we deem the passage by the Legislature of a law establishing of 24 hours labor as a legal day's work, eminently just and proper.

Resolved, That the important case of Chinese or any other people of the Mongolian race from the Pacific States or Territories, is in every respect injurious and degrading to American labor, by forcing it into unjust and ruinous competition, and as evil that should be restricted by legislation and limited by such legal and constitutional means as are in our power.

Resolved, That the future primary elections of the Union party in this State should be held under the provisions of the primary election law, and that such test should be prescribed and enforced as shall exclude all persons not members of the Union party.

Resolved, That we fully approve the amendment to the Constitution of the State, presented by the Legislature of 1866, and providing that the Legislature shall have no power to make an appropriation of money for any purpose whatever, for a period longer than two years; that the same should be accepted by the Legislature, adopted by the people and become part of the Constitution of the State.

RESOLUTIONS

Adopted by the Union County Convention which met at Auburn, Placer county, on the 10th and 11th June, 1867:

Resolved, That it is the duty of the loyal men in the United States, through their representatives in Congress, to take under their control the government of the late rebel States, until such time as a sufficient number of the friends of the Union can be found therein to organize government; and that the future control of said States should be left in the hands of those loyal citizens to the exclusion of the leaders of the late rebellion and of those who voluntarily gave them aid in the past.

Resolved, That we approve of the late Act of Congress for the reconstruction of the rebel States, and earnestly hope that at the coming session the large landed estates of the country who gave their personal influence and donated their means to destroy the Government, will be confiscated and divided up into small tracts and donated as homesteads to the soldiers who fought our battles, and the Union preserved our freedom.

Resolved, That the vital issue between the Union and Democratic parties is that of loyalty to the constitutional Government of the United States as opposed to disloyalty thereto; that the loyalty of the Union party has been abundantly manifested in the constant support of the Government in all its branches, while the disloyalty of the Democratic party is as clearly manifested in the aid and comfort which during the late war it continually afforded to the public enemy, and in the sympathy which it still extends in favor of every movement tending to paralyze the efforts of Congress to ward off the healthy reconstruction of the Federal Union.

Resolved, That the Union party of the United States is the only party in favor of the Union, the Constitution and the laws, and that the propositions set forth by the Democratic party in this regard are false and hollow, unfounded in fact, and disproved by history.

Resolved, That the mission of the Union party is not and can never be accomplished, until the disloyal elements and schewing its present heresies, shall in good faith declare their adherence to the great results of the late war, and then only take issue upon questions upon which adverse opinions may be held or put in practice without jeopardizing the continuance of republican government upon this continent. Until then it is our imperative duty to stand by our colors in the full knowledge that with us is Union and liberty—against any only disunion and disgrace.

Resolved, That in the present condition of our State finances, we are opposed to any donation in money or bonds or any loan of the credit of the State to railroads or other corporations, and that our candidates for Senator and Representative, if elected, are hereby instructed to oppose by their votes and persons influence the enactment of any laws having any such object in view.

THE BALL OPENED.—A large and enthusiastic Union meeting was held in this place Wednesday evening. Messrs. Neff, Hollenbeck, Sewell and Waldron, all candidates on the County ticket were present and made an excellent impression upon the people. Brief and forcible remarks were made by Captain Munday and C. J. Brown, but by an arrangement among the other speakers, most of the time was occupied by Mr. W. C. Norton, who delivered one of the most able and eloquent speeches ever listened to in this place. By the force of his arguments, the keenness of his invective as well as by the grace and elegance of his delivery and diction, Mr. Norton held his large audience spell-bound for nearly two hours. He compared the different platforms, discussed the reconstruction policy of Congress and showed that the mission of the Union Party will not be accomplished until rebels are thoroughly humbled and penitent and until the principles of impartial liberty and justice are established and secured by inviolable guarantee, in the communities, which, before the rebellion, constituted States in the Union. He showed too with thrilling eloquence that the sons and fathers and brothers of the dusky heroes who died for us at Fort Pillow and Wagner and Petersburg, are quite as much entitled to the elective franchise and our sympathy and protection as the infamous wretches who murdered our helpless prisoners by starvation at Andersonville and Bell Isle. He exhorted without mercy the deserters and stragglers from the great Union army as it goes forth on this latest campaign, to gather in and secure some of the righteous fruits of the war. This elegant oration of Norton presented a striking contrast compared to the mixed up mauling harangue of Jo Hamilton, at the democratic meeting here a week or two ago. Norton speaks as if he believes his audience composed of intelligent, cultivated, reasoning gentlemen. Hamilton speaks as if he believes his audience possesses no more intelligence or capacity than a herd of Kentucky mules. The Central Committee cannot do better than keep Mr. Norton in the field till the day of election. He is just the person to talk to the people, so long as there is an apathetic Union man in the county, or a democratic sinner to be converted, or a democratic soul (?) to be saved.

WHAT'S THE MATTER?—It was reported that Seabough had been employed on the Sacramento Union. He must have quit disgusted with his company, or been laid up, for of all the driving stupidity that ever appeared in print, the political leaders of that sheet for the last few days will take the premium. If there is one thing more conspicuous than their folly it is their reckless malice. They are now fully committed to the destruction of the Union Party, and perfectly reconciled to a triumph of treason. Arguing in their weak way to show that the best thing we can now do is to give the State to the rebels. No wonder it is shocked at the degeneracy of the press. And if it knew how few Union men it is leading off to the confederate camp it would be equally shocked at the degeneracy of the people. It is just now raving at the press of the State, it will soon see how impotent it has become, if it should never wake to its imbecility.

Terrible Explosion of Gas—R. H. Farquhar killed.

The following telegraphic dispatch we find in the Sacramento Daily Record, of Saturday Evening.

NEVADA, July 27—2 P. M.
R. H. Farquhar, County Clerk and Union candidate for Clerk of the Supreme Court, was killed this morning in the Court House by an explosion of gas. He and his brother George Farquhar opened the Clerk's office at about nine o'clock, and George remarked to R. H. that he must have left the gas turned on in the vault as he smelled it very strong. They then opened the vault door and went inside, and George picked up a match and lighted it, when a tremendous explosion occurred, blowing out the windows of the Clerk's office and cracking the Court House walls. R. H. Farquhar was terribly burned and lived but a few minutes. George Farquhar was knocked senseless and his face and hands severely burned, but his injuries are not considered dangerous. The clock in the Clerk's office was stopped at eleven minutes to nine, indicating the exact moment of the explosion. The whole community is completely shocked by the occurrence. The deceased leaves a wife and two children.

JAMES THORNBURG.—The young man killed by Joseph Farley was a native of Albany, New York. His parents were of the old families of that place. While quite young he attempted to learn the plumber's trade, but being of a delicate constitution and having had several attacks of bleeding at the lungs, a more active, out-door life was found necessary and he went on to the Hudson River Railroad at 13 years of age. He continued there four years and then came to California. He got employment very soon on the Sacramento Valley Railroad where he continued for several years. Over a year ago he came on to the C. P. R. R. and remained till within the last few months, when he bought a part of Farley's ranch near the Kearsage mill, eight miles east of Dutch Flat. He was always an industrious, active, reliable man, and a first class railroad employee. He was a hearty, jovial companion, and some times allowed the tendency to conviviality to run to excess. But this rarely, if ever, interfered with his business. He was not deficient in spirit and pluck, nor yet a quarrelsome man. While quick to resent an insult, he never held a grudge nor harbored revenge in his heart. While hasty in temper he was always of a forgiving disposition. He was not a man to be feared or shunned for he held no malice. He was the only son of a widowed mother to whom he was devotedly attached. For more than two years he has been the faithful and loving husband of a fervently affectionate wife. Both are left desolate and overwhelmed in grief. While many a friend loved him for his brave and open heart and hand, and deeply regret his untimely taking off. But he has gone suddenly to his last solemn account. We may say of him as of us all, he should have been better. But we will

No further seek his merits to disclose
Or draw his faults from their dreadful shade
There they alike in trembling hope repose
The bosom of his father and his God.

"THE POLITICAL ELEMENTS."—The Sacramento Union of the 26th has an article under the above head, which is a fine foibles-cap for the body of harlequin articles that have lately filled that sheet. When it confines itself to indefinite and unproven charges of fraud in the Union Party it may get some soft pates to believe it. But when it puts its folly into figures it becomes simply ludicrous. Of the 100,000 votes to be polled, in its judgment, September 4, it gives Haight 37,500, Gorham 25,000, and takes the rest for Bidwell. As the remainder happens to be 37,500, of course Haight and Bidwell will be tied. A thing as likely to happen as that any man about the Union office will ever have a grain of political sense.

GLORIOUS.—Mighels of the Carson Appeal writes to the Marysville Appeal, explaining his relations with Gorham. It shows how a kind heart and open hand can make eternal gratitude eloquent in praise of a true man. When George C. Gorham has been four years Governor of California, thousands will love and praise him as Harry Mighels does now.

On Saturday, July 27th, 1867,

at ten o'clock A. M., the following described property to wit: All the right, title, interest and claim

SEMI-WEEKLY ENQUIRER.

CEMENT MINING.—The business of cement mining has been generally successful, and in many instances highly lucrative. At Red Dog, You Bet and Little York, it is taking the place of hydraulic mining. Considerable of the latter will be done when the supply of water shall be greater and the cost less.

As an instance of successful cement mining may be cited the Williams & Molary claim at Red Dog, formerly known as the Perkins claim, from which the owners realized a large fortune. Having worked the lead up to the line of Williams & Co.'s claim; the latter, running in from the south-east side, struck the lead at right angles with its general direction, and in working across it, took out in the short space of six weeks $18,000. Reaching the line of the "Star of the West" checked their further progress. The owners of the "Star of the West," are making preparations to follow the lead which runs through their ground a distance of 1800 feet. They can reach it through the claim of Wright & Co., which bounds it on the north, and which has been worked nearly or quite up to their line, or from the south-east side through the ground worked by Williams & Co.; or from the west side where the owners have reached their lead by a tunnel. Thus the Star of the West has been worked on three sides, on the south by Molary & Williams, on the east by Williams & Co., and on the north by Wright & Co. The owners propose to avail themselves of the facilities presented by Wright & Co., who have a ten stamp mill with a good tunnel reaching the ground of the Star of the West, in operation. Especially is this desirable, as some of the owners of the Wright & Co., also own in the Star of the West. From the working of this lead of about 200 feet, large results are looked for.

At You Bet, the claim formerly owned by Brown & Co., eight stamps cleaned up, we were told over $3,000 last week. The claim of Nese & West is paying well but not so well as formerly, it having paid as high as $6,000 per week. In the Collins claim they are running ahead with good prospects.

In the Hydell claim they have recently struck very rich dirt and are running main drifts preparatory to breasting out. In the Molary claim at this place they have within a few days past struck better dirt.

At Little York there are two cement mills owned by Buckman and Curran. One work fifteen, the other forty hands. Precisely what they are doing is not known, but the impression is that they are getting good results. Altogether the results of cement mining has proved highly commensurate. Several parties have taken out handsome fortunes; and others have them within their grasp. It cannot be expected that any lead will be uniformly rich or continuous. At times expenses only will be made, but the final result is inducing capitalists to invest and we shall expect to see an increase in the business of cement mining.

ENROLLMENT OF VOTERS.—The voters of this election District and precinct of Dutch Flat, as of every other District and precinct, must understand and bear in mind, that the getting their names on the great Register is but half the work, and does not and will not entitle them to vote. They must also see to getting their names enrolled on the poll-list. There is a board of enrollment at Dutch Flat, at Gold Run, and at Kearsarge. Unless you go before one of these boards and get your names enrolled on the poll-list you will not have the right to vote at the general election. These Boards meet only a few times as you will see by their advertisement.

WE DOUBT IT.—The Sacramento Bee says the Committees are at work in San Francisco to reconcile things by putting new men in place of Parks and others and all uniting on the rest of the ticket. It was known before the Bolters met in Sacramento that the leaders were willing to support Gorham if they could be gratified by naming three men in place of Parks, Powell and McCarthy. Campbell proposed to the ratification meeting to compromise on two, possibly that may be done.

REDSTONE MINE.—On the lower level of this mine, richer and much more massive rock has been struck. The Company are enthusiastic and intend pushing more vigorously the work of development. A ditch is to be extended about a mile by which a permanent water power will be obtained. A few hundred tons of such rock as we saw would yield a handsome fortune to a large company.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Holmes of this place had set a pan of hot water on the floor and turned away for a moment when her little girl came out of the parlor and reaching for some fruit on the table, fell back into the pan and was so badly scalded that she survived but seventeen hours.

LATE.—The lateness of furnishing to our patrons the ENQUIRER this week was unavoidable,—cause, stock of paper from below failing to arrive until a late hour Saturday evening. Our patrons will please bear with us.
